The Daily Standard. Treaty of Washington and the Ganadian Fisheries. According to the telegraphic reports ed on Monday last the Treaty of ogton was in such an inextricable addle that nothing in the world could save it from destruction except England's neceptance of the American demand for ential damages or the acceptance by the latter of England's amended supemental clause to the treaty, which both the high contracting parties had firmly lived not to do. There were very who read the dispatches to which we allade, but came to the conclusion that all hope of a satisfactory settlement of the matters in dispate, for some time to come at least, was at an end. Yesterday morning another may of hope was emitted from the battery, that the Treaty might have the part in a satisfactory shape and from the battery, that the Treaty might yet be put in a satisfactory shape and receive the sanction of both countries.

Then was to the effect that the supplemental article did not leave the sabject of indirect claims open for any misunderstanding, that the views of the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and the American Minister were in accordance the supplest and that it in accord upon the subject, and that it was mutually understood that the United States should make no claim for indirect losses at Genera. To-morrow we shall robably have another phase of the controversy, but we presume the shape will take will very much depend upon the hance of American stock-jobbers and the state of the stock market at that time, hance as the telegraph, which should be a reliable medium for the conveyance of truthful intellignce, is but an instrument in the hands of Wall street cambiers to coin falsehoods and disseminata them broadcast for purely speculative purposes; and the result is, that scarcely any reliance whatever can be placed on anything that comes over the line bearing appear the Treaty of Washington or any other question of international interest, until it has been either thrice repeated or verified by the reception of corres-pondence from California or elsewhere. In a commercial point of view the telegraph is doubtless a convenience, but outside of that it would be no libel to write it down a bilk. Our to beet, however, is not to descent upon the telegraph as a coiner or desseminator of bogus news, but to congratulate our product news the feet (if it he a feet) by readers upon the fact (if it be a fact) that there is still a hope that the treaty will be ratified, and to draw attention to the Act relating to the Treaty of Washinginto the House of Commons of the Do-minion, by Sir John A. Macdonald, for the ratification of those sections of the Treaty relating to the Canadian Fisherthrough Canada in bond, and the carriage of goods in United States' vessels from one port of Canada to another, on certain conditions. The provisions of this Bill, it will be observed, are not limited in their operations and effects to the old maritime Provinces, as some have incorrectly approsed they would be, but are as wide in their application as the Dominion itself. They will therefore not be devoid CALL AND EXAMINE SPECIMENS. - 106 of interest to the people of this Province.

The presentle of the Bill goes on to say that whereas by article thirty-three of the Treaty between Her Majesty and the United States of America, signed at the city of Washington on the 8th day of May, 1871, it is provided that articles eighteen to twenty-five inclusive, relating to the fisheries, shall take effect as soon as the laws required to carry them into operation shall have been passed by the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain, by the Parliament of Canada, and by the Legislature of Prince Edward's Island, on the one hand, and by the Congress of the United States on the other, and that such assent having been given, the said articles shall remain in force for the articles shall remain in force for the term of years mentioned in the said article thirty-three; and that it is expedient that the laws required to carry the said treaty into effect as respects Canada, abould be passed by the Parliament of the Dominion. The Bill consists of the Dominion. The Bill consists of only five short clauses, the first of which is a simple recitation of certain acts suspended as regards United States vessels and citizens engaged in taking fish (except shell-fish) on the coasts of Quebec, Nova Scotia and New Branswick. Article 2 provides that fish oil and fish of all kinds (except fish of the inland lakes and of the rivers fall. of the island lakes and of the rivers fall- MATTHEWS, RICHARDS & CO. ing into them, and except fish preserved in oil) being the produce of the fisheries of the Batted States, shall be admitted into Canada free of duty. Clause 3 prevides that goods, wares, and mer-chandize arriving at any of the ports of of Canada, and destined for the United States of America, may be entered at the proper custom house, and conveyed in transit, without the payment of duties through Canada, under such rules, retion of the revenue, as the Governor in Council may from time to time prescribe, and under like rules, regulations, and conditions, goods, wares and merchand.ze may be conveyed in transit, without payment of duties, from the United States through Canada, to other places in the United States, or for export from ports in Canada. Under clause 4 citizens of the United States may carry in United States without payment of data goods.

said Treaty. For these concessions on the part of Capada the United States may be the first step toward the renewal of that larger Reciprocity Tresty which did so much to promote the commercial interests of both countries during the short period of its existence.

Dover, Calais and Ustend ... pilles, Malta and Sues. Or a total of state Hays A DEFECT IN THE BALLOT BILL. There another defect in the Ballot Bill, the Law Time says, which should be looked to before it is too late. The existing law purposely invalidates the votes of all persons employed by a candidate at an election. With the ballot this wholeseme provision. ballot this wholeseme provision will become perfectly inoperative, for where the vote cannot be known, it will be manifestly impossible to strike a wrongful one from the poll. Theonly remedy that will remain for the great muchief of bribery under cover of employment, will be to make the act of voting by the persons employed an indictable offence, subject to severe punishment. This may partially operate to deter from voting, but unfortunately it will not undo the wrong done by the votes. The same difficulty presents itself in regard to voters who have become disqualified since the registration. Some provision should also be made for the prevention of bribery in the American fashion, by a bargain with the spokesman of a club or returaed. Inasmuch as payment in such case is not made until after the election, proof of it should be permitted, for the purpose of avoiding the election, at any subsequent time. FROM THE BAST COAST .- The steamer Maude arrived yesterday evening at 6:45, from Nanaime and way ports, with twelve passengers naime and way ports, with twelve passengers and two head of cattle. LONDON, June 4—The weather throughout England to-day is wet and unfavorable to the growing crops.

LONDON, June 5—In the House of Lords last evening, Earl Russell moved his long-impending address to the Queen for the withdrawal of England from the Geneva Arbitration, un'ess the United States abandons the Indicest Chains. The noble Earl scales THE PRINCE ALFRED'S PASSENGER LIST States; the circumstances of the escape of the Alabama and the subsequent negotiation with the British Government, and concluded as follows : This nation must show as it Las pefore shown that it is zealous of the honor of the British Crown; it must treat the United States as it treated them in the Trent case.

Cheers. Lord Granville followed and defended the ight of the American Government to place its own construction on the Treaty and to introduce ludirect Claims. The only way of escape from the consequence of the opposite interpretation put on the Treaty by the two Governments was the Supplemental Article and of this the Government had availed itself. therefore Russell's proposition did not touch the point at issue. He defended the Com-British Commissioners believed the Indirect Clasms would be withdrawn and believed the American Commissioners had so admitted. He rebuked Russell for his allusion to the Trent affair, declaring that it would be the cause of incalcalable ill-feeling, should the Treaty of Washington fail, an event by no ed (?) to themselves the treat - anking power, NEW GALLERY bey would take an enormous resposibility. Earl Derby disclaimed any party feeling on the question. He had been told they should be careful not to offend the Americans. He did not want to break off the craigg the well known and centrally located Gallery, and having entirely refitted the same, he is prepared to negotiations, but he wanted to know where take they stood. If an understanding is clear that the Indirect Claims are excluded, why are they not excluded in plain terms.

Earl Kimberley regretted that Lord Granville constituted himself the American advocate, and reiterated Earl Derby's demand for a plain withdrawal of the Indirect claims.

DR. CHING FUN—A CARD—EDITOR STANDARD:—Through the medium of your paper I want to state the very great good that has ocen done me by Dr. Ching Fun of this city, nxet door K wong Lee & Co. For 24 years I suffered with neuralgis on the brain, which baffled the skull of three first-class American physicians. Lattery bronchtis attacked my right lung, and my sy c bocan wully inflamed. Des pairing of ever b slugr ued I p'ced myself as a last resort in the hands of Dr. Ching Fun, and after five months treatment I am a well man and feel that I cannot sound the eminent Chinese gentleman's praises too loudly, o that all my countrymen similarly affecteed may visit and find reliet, Respectfully,
